Bingo Baher Creation

When entering your words on the bingo card, press the yellow 'Generate' button underneath. The all words will be placed in 15-year words to the column of a formation to the right of the line is generated for you. When that screen is shown, the bingo card becomes the only thing you can see on the screen, with your chosen information.

The QR code address is the information you need to copy and paste to create your QR code.

Each time the QR code is scanned, the words on the bingo card will be in a different order. No 2 bingo cards will be the same!

Generate

Bingo Cards

Bingo Baker makes it easy to create bingo cards. You can generate hundreds of random cards and print them using the printer-friendly PDF (with no ads or watermarks). You can also save paper (and waste electricity instead) by playing your bingo game online (it works on the iPad).

Instructions: Just type your words into the grid on the left. You can give your game a title and can change the BINGO column headings too.

Then click the Generate button.

New! Drag images from your computer into a cell. Use ALT + DEL to delete an image from a cell.

Examples

- Weather Bingo
- Greek Alphabet Bingo
- Addition Bingo

Create an Account

(it's optional)

If you want to manage your cards more easily, upload more images, or print more than 8 cards, you need to create an account.

Don't panic about the text in the boxes on the left not being vertically centered. That's just the way textboxes look. Your generated cards will look a lot better!

After entering your words on the bingo card, press the yellow 'Generate' button underneath. This will create a bingo board with your words. In the column of information to the right of this, there is an option to 'Play/View Full Screen'. By clicking this button, the bingo card becomes the only thing you can see on the screen, with no additional information.

The URL (web address) is the information you need to copy and paste to create your QR code.

Each time the QR code is scanned, the words on the bingo card will be in a different order!

No 2 bingo boards will be the same!
